Román Ríos

Software Developer and Graphic Designer
Web Development and Multimedia Design Specialist

Santa Fe, July 2024

Hello, I'm Román!

Software Developer and Graphic Designer from Argentina, passionate about creating high-impact experiences in web development and multimedia design.

I completed a Bachelor's Degree in Visual Communication Design from the Universidad Nacional del Litoral, with specializations in Web Development and Programming. Currently, I am pursuing a Higher Technician Degree in Software Development, deepening my skills in software design, construction, verification, debugging, optimization, and maintenance.

My approach is based on proactivity, teamwork, effective communication, and adaptability, with a commitment to continuous learning to face challenges and achieve goals.

Ready to bring my full potential and experience to your team. Let's connect!

Atentamente,
Román Ríos
